

Mrs Christina Tetradi holds a Bachelor Degree in Business Administration and Hotel Management and a Masters Degree in Marketing and Public Relations from Thames Valley University in the UK.

She is an Entrepreneur/Hotelier, President and Managing Director of Zante Hospitality Group (ZHG).

She is the

- Vice President of the Hellenic Chamber of Hotels,
- Vice President of the Association of Greek Women in Tourism,
- Secretary General of the Research Institute for Tourism – (R.I.T.),
- President of Zakynthos Hoteliers Association, and
- Board Member of Marketing Greece.

She has been awarded as Woman Leader of the Ionian Islands 2018.

Her articles and interviews on tourism have been broadcasted and published in Greek and International financial newspapers, tourism journals and TV networks.

She is married to Anastasios Liaskos, President of the War Museum of Athens, f.

Deputy Minister for Tourism and MP and they have one daughter.