

Sir Dr. Ian Peter Anderson's distinguished career started with Midland Bank in the UK now HSBC Plc. He proceeded through the departments and after some 9 years joined a large American Finance Company.

From here he was head-hunted back into National Westminster Bank, wherein he set up a similar operation. Due to Board Policies a change of direction occurred after much challenging work and Ian joined a Joint Venture with NatWest and Orient Leasing of Japan. He moved into two different private consultancies for some 3 years and then ventured alone in 1991. His own consultancy attracted his old clients, and he built a strong business with a department also dealing in Debt Recovery and restructuring.

Over the years Dr. Sir Ian Peter Anderson became fully involved in the more Humanitarian side of the industry and has built many relationships and assisted in many successes. A position he continues to strive to better and enlarge.

He holds positions with 2 Private Banks- BCCT- BANCA CREDITO COOPERATIVO SPA, TORTORETO, with its Main Office in Vatican City & Vic Asset Management Bank Ltda, Brasil. He is Security Officer to Hon Judge @ICJ-ICC, UNASDG IGO, Director at Gormus-Rockefeller Capital Management Euroasia Africa, and is Director together with his own identities across more than 12 further companies.
