

H.H. Princess Maja von Hohenzollern has been recognized for her contribution in social affairs as well as a designer.

She has been behind the licensed brand Maja Prinzessin von Hohenzollern designing innovative interior and lifestyle products like furniture, bathrooms, bath fittings, home-decoration, pets- and children items for over 16 years.

Now the brand can be found in 80 countries and Her Highness has been awarded as "Designer of the year 2020" and has received the GOLD Prize in "ASIA DESIGN AWARDS".

Her love for the planet and animals made her search into various methods and become an expert for sustainability and vegan products.

Princess Maja is a committed animal welfare activist and she has been working as a volunteer at Vorstandschef, the Heart for Strays Foundation for more than 13 years.

For her global social commitment Princess Maja von Hohenzollern was awarded with important international awards.