

Nikos Chalkiadakis is the CEO of Theofilos Chalkiadakis SA. which has been active in the hospitality industry since 1980. The strong investment activity of the family business contributes significantly to the further increase in employment. The choice of local suppliers and producers is a known competitive advantage of the business, thus contributing more to the economic strengthening of the local community.

Since March 2013, he has been the President of the Heraklion Hotel Association aiming to unite and register more members in the Union, extending the tourist season and intertwining the Primary sector with Hotel Businesses. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Hotel Chamber representing Crete and specifically the 5-star hotels.

The mission of the company and the main philosophy of the management is to provide high quality services, always in accordance with the policies that refer to the environment, the local community, human rights and national heritage. It is worth noting that in the last 8 years, the company has won a series of local, national and even global awards.